BOY WAR REFUGEE ENTERS U. S. ON 4th

Chicago, July 5.—Frank (late's Franz) Fetzner, aged 12, has realized his ambition. He has been admitted to the United States, which to him represents the ultimate of all desires. After traveling all the way from Czechoslovakia, he was held up at the immigration office until someone was found who would give assurance the boy would not become a public charge. Frank Fabigan, of Chicago, gave that assurance, and the boy stepped into the land of the free on July 4.

Although but 12 years old, the boy has lived ages of horror and suffering. In the little town of Atrabitz his father was a small merchant. With the outbreak of hostilities he marched away with his regiment. A French bullet killed him. Then Atrabitz was invaded and the boy and his mother fled to Vienna. Hunger, grief and privation were too much for the mother and she died. The lad managed to exist on scraps he found in the streets, bits of food occasionally handed him by sympathetic people, and his clothing was such as he could salvage from the charnel houses, reinforced by wisps of hay and held together by strings.

He got to the seashore and managed to stow himself away in an ocean liner. The officers of the boat brought him to Quebec. From there he worked his way to Detroit, where immigration officers stopped him until Mr. Fabigan came to the rescue.

FIRE KILLS FIVE STANDARD OIL MEN

Chicago, July 5.—Five men were burned to death and twenty-seven injured when fire started yesterday morning in three batteries of high pressure stills in the Standard Oil Company's refinery at Whiting, Ind. Among the dead: Fire Marshal Johnson of the Standard Oil Company's force; Assistant Fire Marshal Joe Talpy; George Dvorsak laborer. The other dead were so badly burned that identification is impossible except by elimination. Seven persons are missing.

The fire started just as the night force was going out and the day force coming on. There was a terrific explosion. The fire spread rapidly and all the company's fire fighters were called. It was not until noon that the fire was extinguished.

IN MEMORIAM

Leaf by leaf ten roses fall,
Soul by soul the Saviour calls,
Not for me, but for all,
We must go when the roll is called.
